A Birthday Celebration.

Yesterday the Vaas families assembled at Wheeling Park to celebrate the birthday of Mr. Henry Vaas, who is the oldest of the living children. Fifty-one persons were present. They spent the day in a delightful manner, and returned to the city in a happy frame of mind.

Allen-Fox Wedding.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Cathedral, occurs the wedding of Miss Lilly Fox, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Fox, of the North End, and Mr. John Allen, conductor, of the Wheeling street railway. The attendants will be Mr. Martin Brady and Miss Annie Fitzsimmons. Father O. H. Moye will officiate. The happy couple will go to house keeping on the South Side.

A Pretty Window Display.

Clem Peters, prescription clerk at Will Irwin's drug store, has on exhibition a handsome display of school supplies in the windows that attracts favorable comment. Everything from a soapstone slate pencil to an imported gutta percha pencil box are here on display, and the unique and attractive manner in which Mr. Peters has arranged the display causes unstinted admiration from passers-by.

The Water Connection.

Superintendent Oliver, of the water works, announces that everything is now ready for making the new connection at the pumping station. The connection will be made between Saturday at midnight and Sunday at noon. Water consumers are advised to take in a good supply of water in advance, although it is not believed that there will be any trouble in promptly making the connection within the time mentioned.

Union A. O. H. Picnic.

Great preparations are being made for the union picnic to be given at Mozart Park, Thursday, September 6, by the Mullen and Benwood divisions of the A. O. H., assisted by the Ladies' Auxiliary. There will be dancing in the Casino from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 12 o'clock at night to the strains of the Grand Opera House orchestra. Among other features will be two bowling contests between members of each division and the ladies of each auxiliary. A prize will be given for the highest individual score of the day. A prize will also be given to the teams winning out. The ladies will serve refreshments and supper in the park restaurant.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

Yesterday, in Clerk Robertson's office, the following were recorded:

D GUNDLING & CO.,
1215 Market Street.NOW FOR THE
ROUGH RIDER REGIMENT.

Another Meeting of Young Republicans to be Held This Evening at I. O. O. F. Hall.

THERE WILL BE SPEECHES

By Congressman Dovener and Messrs. Schuck, Nesbitt and Arbenz.
All Are Invited.

Another meeting of the young Republicans of the city and county will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at I. O. O. F. hall, corner of Twelfth and Chapline streets, for the purpose of furthering the movement for the organization of the Republican Rough Rider Regiment, and it is hoped that all Republicans, especially young Republicans, will attend the meeting. Members of the clubs already organized are especially desired to be on hand, as it is hoped to enlist all the club organizations in the proposed regiment. This would mean uniform uniforms, a central organization, and an all-round better showing than in any former political campaign.

The Ritchie district marching club, which will affiliate with the regiment, will march up in a body to attend tonight's meeting, under command of Capt. C. E. Morris.

After the business of the meeting has been transacted, there will be speeches on the issues of the campaign by Congressman Dovener, Messrs. Charles J. Schuck, John Arbenz, Jr., and Frank W. Nesbitt.

Many Good Speakers.

As the campaign opens up it is evident that the Republican managers intend sending some of the party's most gifted speakers into this state. Senator Burrows, of Michigan, speaks in Wheeling on September 8; Colonel Roosevelt, Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith and other noted spellbinders come later, and on September 5, at the Bethany fair, General O. O. Howard, a hero of the civil war and Indian campaigns, lately retired from the army, is scheduled to address the people on the issues of the campaign.

Potomac Heard From.

County Chairman Hornish yesterday morning received the returns from the Potomac precinct, in the late Republican county primary. Hugus received 12 votes and Addleman 2.

Speakers for Ohio-Side.

W. C. Bergundthal, chairman of the Belmont county Republican committee and also county treasurer, was in the city yesterday. Political matters are quiet over the river as yet, but there is an undercurrent of interest beginning to manifest itself, and Mr. Bergundthal has made requisition on the state committee for Hon. Charles Emory Smith, Senator J. B. Foraker and other big guns for his county during the campaign. The lists for Ohio are not yet completed but Belmont is sure to have some winning cards before the campaign of this year is over. The county committee or a mass convention of Republicans will meet soon to select delegates to a convention at Steubenville that has been called to name a candidate for member of the state board of equalization. That member is to represent Belmont, Columbiana, Harrison and Jefferson counties, but as that is all the convention has to do there is no probability of a large convention. There is general regret that the convention was not called at the same time as the judicial convention, as all the counties are in the entire district.

WANTED—50,000 Belmont beer bottles at the brewery.

Another Telegram.

The following telegram from the Remington Typewriter Co., Pittsburgh, was received by the Elliott School, this morning:
